

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS

If I want to deliver handbills within the Borough of Woodbury Heights do I need a business license/permit?

Yes, you will need a Handbill Distribution Permit. These expire at the end of the calendar year during which they were issued.

If I want to go soliciting door to door in the Borough of Woodbury Heights do I need a business license/permit?

Yes, you will need a Solicitation Permit. A one-day permit shall expire on the day of its issuance, also available - a weekly permit or annual (calendar year) permit – (see application for fees).

If I want to go soliciting door to door in the borough of Woodbury heights and leave a handbill at the residences where no one answers the door do I need something more than my Solicitation Permit?

Yes, in addition to a Solicitation Permit you will also need a Handbill Distribution Permit.

If I want to distribute handbills in the Borough of Woodbury Heights and talk to anyone about my products and/or services while I'm doing so will my Handbill Distribution Permit Suffice?

No, in addition to your Handbill Distribution Permit you will also need a Solicitation Permit as well.